By order entered on March 21, 2013, we remanded this case for recalculation of interest on both awards. On remand, the parties agreed to a stipulated settlement and the trial court entered an order which states in pertinent part:

that this is a final order of the court and disposes of all matters relating to the case in controversy including the possibility of further appellate review, subject to additional orders of the Michigan Court of Appeals, and that the case is dismissed with prejudice.

Consequently, we ORDER that this appeal is now closed.
