

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COURT OF APPEALS

In the Matter of ANTHONY ARNOLD, a Minor.

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

v

ANTHONY ARNOLD,

Defendant-Appellant.

UNPUBLISHED
September 3, 1999

No. 209337
Wayne Juvenile Court
LC No. 93-306626

Before: Markman P.J., and Saad and P. D. Houk*, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Defendant appeals by right from a dispositional order of the Wayne Juvenile Court in this juvenile delinquency case, revoking defendant's probation and placing defendant under the supervision of the Family Independence Agency. We affirm. This appeal is being decided without oral argument pursuant to MCR 7.214(E).

We review the lower court's decision for an abuse of discretion. See In Re Scruggs, 134 Mich App 617, 621; 350 NW2d 916 (1984). Defendant contends that the juvenile court abused its discretion because there was full compliance with the terms of defendant's probation and because defendant had been told that his case would be closed. We disagree. Defendant plainly admitted in the proceedings below that he had violated the terms of his probation when he quit attending school in September of 1997. Moreover, defendant offered no reasonable excuse for quitting school. While defendant claimed below that at some unspecified time his probation officers had told him at that they were going to "try to" have his case dismissed, he never claimed that anyone ever told him he was no longer obliged to attend high school.

* Circuit judge, sitting on the Court of Appeals by assignment.
